

SHEDLOADS

The Bi - monthly newsletter of Wakefield Labour Club

September Special 2016

50th Anniversary Arrangements!

This edition is devoted to two issues, events in and around our 50th anniversary and our 4 new Life Members adopted by the Club Committee this year.

There is a 5th, but that's a secret!

3rd September. We have a Socialist History Group meeting on the Easter Rising from 1pm to 4pm. In the evening a great night out with the Kirkby Beats with their own inimitable style of music.

Lit Fest in the Club this September, with Stand Up and Spit on Friday, 30th. This is being ticketed by Lit Fest itself. Open Microphone in September will on this occasion be in October, on the 1st from 8pm.

Club President, George Denton presenting life membership of the Club to Rowley Parkinson and Kevin Swift.

The Beer Festival in May 2016, East v West, raised over £3,000 for charity. Thanks to all who took part, on both sides of the bar and there will be pictures of the presentations in the next edition of Shed-loads

Bob Mitchell receiving Life Membership of the Club after 40+ years membership.

On Friday 23rd September we will kick off our 50th Anniversary weekend with a talk by local historian and author, Ian Clayton and music later by our own home band— “Taken for Granted”. This event is ticketed at £6 waged and £3 unwaged.

Saturday, 24th September.

From 2pm until 5pm we have “The Hunch” a band previously made up of members of the Solicitors in Wakefield. There will be free food for members and there is no ticketing for this event.

In the evening, by overwhelming demand, we see the return of Blackstone Edge in the Club. This event will kick off circa 8pm and will be ticketed at £6 waged and £3 unwaged.

All members and their guests are welcome.

Club Treasurer, Jan Samuel presenting Life Membership to Peter Hirst.

Sunday 25th September kicks off with a Members Day, Barbecue from 12 noon onwards.

In the evening the major production of the weekend with our own Red Shed Players and Mark Thomas presenting a comedy evening. Tickets for this have sold out but you can see Mark’s production of “The Red Shed” at West Yorkshire Playhouse in November. Sorry for the lack of tickets but they flew out as soon as we released them!

We hope to see you all at sometime over the celebrations.